Be a vital part of UF's AI Days

The fourth annual AI Days is October 24-29, 2025. Support all things AI at UF by becoming an AI Days sponsor. During AI Days, over 1,000 student, faculty, and staff participants benefit from interdisciplinary collaborations in AI student competitions, panel discussions, and workforce readiness. This successful event highlights how UF integrates artificial intelligence (AI) across the curriculum to prepare the workforce of the future and conducts outstanding AI research.

AI Days 2025 Event Schedule

Friday, Oct 24th | AI Days: College Events Day

Hackathon - Friday to Sunday

Monday, Oct 27th | AI Days: Student Competitions

Hackathon, Entrepreneurial Pitch, and Creative Competitions

Tuesday, Oct 28th | AI Days: Research & Teaching, with Evening Reception

Wednesday, Oct 29th | AI Days: Student Workforce Readiness

AI Days is hosted by the AI² Center (Artificial Intelligence Academic Initiative Center) in partnership with the Artificial Intelligence Informatics Research Institute (AIIRI) and UF's Information Technology Research Computing. With your support, we provide AI Days at no charge to students, faculty, and the UF community at large.

Why Support AI Days?

- » Reach 1,000 AI Days participants
- » Share your company's AI knowledge with students and faculty
- » Support AI teaching, learning, and research at UF
- » Offer AI education to all UF students, faculty, and staff
- » Showcase your leadership in AI to the workforce of tomorrow
- » Continue to offer this free and unique opportunity to all at UF
- » Grow AI Days into a national model for other universities
